Section 4. Who Are Your Signatories?

Transactions, and changes to investments and contact details, requires sign-off. Depending on your 'Investor Type', the corresponding persons considered an 'Authorised' Signatory in the table below can sign formal investment documents. There may be exceptions to the table below. If so, please note that we may contact you to request further information.

Investor Type	Who is considered an 'Authorised' Signatory?
Individual	Individual OR both individuals for a joint investment
Sole Trader	Owner of the business
Partnerships	Minimum of two partners, one must be the managing partner
Company	Two directors OR a director and company secretary
Sole director company	Must be the sole director/secretary
Trusts/SMSFs	All Trustees OR in accordance with the Trust deed
Association/Not For Profit	Minimum of three office bearers eg. treasurer/chairman/secretary (or equivalent officer) OR in accordance with rules governing the association

'Authorised' signatories can also nominate 'Additional' signatories to operate the investment. For example, some organisations find nominating a few 'Additional' signatories particularly convenient if their directors/board members are not often available to sign forms. If you have queries regarding 'Authorised' and 'Additional' signatories, or require clarification on what we require from you/your organisation, please contact our office.

IMPORTANT: Any individual authorised to open and operate the investment will need to provide information below. ACS Financial may use some details provided in this section to verify your identity from electronic sources. We will contact you if we require further information.

The personal information provided in this section WILL NOT be used or disclosed for marketing purposes.

Section 7. Privacy Statement

ACC Directorate (formerly known as Assemblies of God in Australia) (ABN 65 004 617 467) ("ACCD") (the Issuer) and ACS Financial Pty Ltd (ACN 062 448 122) (AFSL 247388) (ABN 91 460 778 961) ("ACS Financial") (the Investment Manager) are committed to ensuring the confidentiality and security of your personal information.

We are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles ("APPs") under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) regarding the way we handle your personal information.

We have implemented a Privacy Policy, under the APPs, which explains how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information, and how you can access and/or correct that information. Nothing in this policy limits any of our obligations at law. You can obtain a copy of the 'ACS Group Privacy Policy' by calling 1800 646 777 or by downloading a copy at [www.acsfinancial.com.au /Customer-Support - Privacy Policy](http://www.acsfinancial.com.au/ Customer-Support - Privacy Policy)

ACS Financial collects your personal information. If you would like to obtain further information about the ACS Group Privacy Policy, Complaints Process or how you can access or correct the information held about you, you can contact the ACS Group Privacy Officer on 1800 646 777 or compliance@acsfinancial.com.au

Circumstances of collection

We generally collect personal information directly from you. For example, personal information will be collected when you complete an application or a form or document relating to day-to-day maintenance of your investment. Telephone, face-to-face contact, visiting the ACS Financial website and sending us correspondence are also examples of how we may collect personal information from you.

If you provide personal information about another person to us, you must have that person's authorisation to provide their information and you must inform that person of our identity, how we will use and disclose the information and that person's rights to access or correct that information.

Purposes of collection

Your personal information is collected for the purposes set out in the ACS Group Privacy Policy and is relevant to processing your application, administering your investment and processing redemptions. Your personal information may be disclosed to service providers to assess whether your investment application can be accepted and to verify your identity from electronic sources.

Consequences of not providing us with the personal information

If you do not provide the full information that we request, we may be unable to process your application.

Purpose of disclosure

The information we may collect includes:

- your name, business address, ABN/ACN/ARBN, home address, postal address, phone numbers, fax numbers, e-mail addresses, date of birth, drivers licence, role/position;
- bank account details, TFNs, governing rules, business identification documents; and

The information collected will help us to:

- provide you with information on how to apply and invest;
- provide interest rate quotes;
- provide an efficient management, administrative and registry service;
- assess any issue raised by you or us; and
- comply with our legal obligations.

These lists are not exhaustive.

Your rights

You may:

- request access to information held about you; and
- complain about a breach of the APPs, and find out how we will deal with a privacy complaint, by contacting the ACS Group Privacy Officer.

We have an effective internal complaints procedure set out in our 'Dispute Handling Policy & Procedure' so that we may formally attend to any complaint where you believe your personal information may have been incorrectly used or disclosed. A summary Complaints Process is available at www.acsfinancial.com.au/Customer-Support - or call 1800 646 777 to request a copy

Marketing Material

We may use the information received from you to provide you with information about other products, services and special offers unless you indicate otherwise in the box below*.

* I/We, as or on behalf of the investor, do not consent to the use of my/our information for the purpose indicated above.

We do not trade, rent or sell your personal information and we will not provide your information to any third party other than in accordance with the ACS Group Privacy Policy.
